

TERMS & CONDITION

By accessing the website, registering, or participating in HackTheSpring'26, all participants, team members, mentors, judges, volunteers, and attendees agree to abide by the following Terms & Conditions.

1. GENERAL ACCEPTANCE

- Participation in any event of HackTheSpring'26 constitutes full and unconditional acceptance of these Terms & Conditions.
- Ignorance of the rules or policies shall not be considered a valid excuse for non-compliance.

2. ELIGIBILITY

- Participants must be enrolled in a recognized educational institution.
- Valid college/institute ID proof must be produced upon request.
- Event-specific eligibility conditions must also be satisfied.

3. REGISTRATION RULES

- Registration must be completed through the official registration platform only.
- Registrations are non-transferable.
- Providing false, misleading, or incomplete information may result in cancellation without notice.
- The organizing committee reserves the right to accept or reject any registration without assigning a reason.

4. EVENT PARTICIPATION & TEAM FORMATION

- Refer to the FAQs of the particular event.
- TEAM FORMATION
- Team size varies depending on the event.

- Teams may range from Individual participation (1 member) to 4–5 members, depending on event-specific rules.
- Participants must strictly follow the team size limits defined for each event.

5. FEES & PAYMENTS

- Registration fees are non-refundable and non-transferable.
- No refunds shall be provided in cases of:
 1. Disqualification
 2. Absence or late arrival
 3. Rule violations
 4. Technical issues from the participant's side

6. CODE OF CONDUCT COMPLIANCE

- All participants must comply with:
- The Overall Code of Conduct
- The Code of Conduct of the specific event they are participating in.
- For better understanding and compliance, participants are strongly advised to refer to the Code of Conduct of their respective event.

RULE PRIORITY

- In case of any conflict between general rules and event-specific rules, event-specific Code of Conduct and rules shall take precedence.

7. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

- Participants retain full ownership of their ideas, code, designs, prototypes and projects.
- By participating, participants grant HackTheSpring'26 permission to:
 1. Display projects during the event
 2. Use abstracts, screenshots, photographs, and demo videos
 3. Publish results and summaries for academic, reporting, and promotional purposes
- Proper credit will be given to participants at all times.

8. PLAGIARISM & ORIGINALITY

- All submissions must be original work.
- Plagiarism, misrepresentation, or unauthorized use of third-party work is strictly prohibited.

- Use of Generative AI tools (ChatGPT, Gemini, Copilot) is permitted for debugging and boilerplate code but must be disclosed. The core logic and execution must be original. Direct submission of AI-generated projects without significant human modification will lead to disqualification.
- Any violation will result in immediate disqualification.

9. JUDGING & EVALUATION

- Evaluation criteria will be defined separately for each event.
- Judges' and jury members' decisions are final and binding.
- No appeals, re-evaluations, or score discussions will be entertained.

10. SAFETY & PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY

- Participants are responsible for:
 1. Their personal belongings
 2. Their devices, tools, and equipment
- The organizing committee is not liable for loss, theft, or damage of personal property.
- For Offline Events: The organizers will provide Wi-Fi access. However, in the event of unforeseen network failure, participants are advised to have personal hotspots as a backup.
- Participants must follow all safety instructions issued by organizers or venue authorities.
- The college campus has a green environment with animals. Harming animals or damaging the campus environment is strictly prohibited. Participants must maintain a safe distance from animals and follow all safety guidelines.

11. DAMAGE TO PROPERTY

- Any damage to college infrastructure, equipment, or property caused by a participant or team will be their sole responsibility.
- The organizing committee reserves the right to recover repair or replacement costs

12. MEDIA, PHOTOGRAPHY & RECORDING

- Photographs and videos may be recorded during the event.
- Participation implies consent for usage of such media in:
 1. Official website
 2. Social media platforms
 3. Reports, posters, and promotional material

13. DISQUALIFICATION & REMOVAL

- The organizing committee reserves the right to:
 1. Disqualify any participant or team at any stage
 2. Remove participants from the venue
 3. Cancel participation without refund
- Reasons may include misconduct, rule violations, safety concerns, or unethical behavior.

14. EVENT MODIFICATIONS

- The organizing committee reserves the right to:
 1. Modify schedules
 2. Update rules
 3. Change evaluation criteria
 4. Merge, reschedule, or cancel events if required

15. FORCE MAJEURE

- The organizing committee shall not be held responsible for delays, disruptions, or cancellations due to:
 1. Natural disasters
 2. Government regulations
 3. Health emergencies
 4. Power, internet, or technical failures
 5. Any unforeseen circumstances beyond control
- All decisions taken by the Organizing Committee and Faculty Coordinators shall be final.
- Any disputes shall fall under the jurisdiction of Gandhinagar, Gujarat.
- Participation in Hack the Spring '26 confirms that the participant has read, understood, and agreed to all Terms & Conditions stated above.